Gen. Crook in Consultation with Governor Adams.

A Messenger Sent to Bring Colorow to Meeker.

[Flying Parties R[illegible].]

DENVER, September 1.—A special to the Times from Rangely, August 30, says Glenwood, August 31 says: Yesterday a scouting party found the body of a man named Goshorn, who enlisted in the troops at Glenwood Springs. Nothing here is known of him. The body was found about three miles from the battle ground in a state of decomposition. A squad of men was detailed to bury it. Sheriff Hooper put in the day scouting yesterday and saw no Indians. Dr. Lanterman who went out in another direction saw nearly 200, and another party reported seeing about twenty. To-day Major Leslie intends organizing a complete and comprehensive scouting expedition for the purpose of definitely locating what I[illegible] there may be in the county. It is generally conceded however, that the Indians are encamped on the [illegible] reservation.

THE SITUATION.

Twelve [illegible]ic of the Aspen volunteers left here yesterday. There are only about 150 men here now holding the [illegible]. Reinforcements are watched for with anxiety. The Indian [illegible] is closely guarded and they are assured that the moment the school is completed it will proceed to [illegible] unless the work is left behind. No depredations have been committed at the [illegible] reservation known as the [illegible] of the [illegible].

MEEKER, August 31. General Adams, General West and General Pearson held a consultation with prominent citizens of Garfield county night before last, at which it was decided to send an officer to the front with a proposition for Colorow to come in and talk with Governor Adams and General Crook. Major Strahlendorf started with instructions at midnight and is expected to return with the chief tomorrow, bringing [illegible] from him.

General Crook arrived last night at 1:30 o'clock. A[illegible] was called up and a conference was instituted which lasted until morning. The [illegible] be arrived at is that state troops will be withdrawn and a company post will be [illegible] at Rangely for the protection of settlers. Agent Byrnes from the Uintah agency is expected to arrive to-day.

RENDALL'S REQUEST.

A request has been forwarded from the field asking the mustering in or enlistment of Rendall's men, to be [illegible] August 8th. Governor Adams has refused the request. There is something queer about the sheriff and his proceedings.

The Chief Is.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, September 1, 2 p. m.—A courier just in reports that General Crook, Agent Byrnes and one company of colored cavalry are now at Meeker. The Utes are all at the agency. Private information leads me to the conclusion that we will return within a week. The courier reports that Colorow could not be found. I have just counted [illegible] with a flock of sheep and goats stolen from the Utes. The sheriff has the men and sheep in custody here. The arrest was made by direction of the governor, communicated by wire yesterday.

Major Commanding

Utes on the Reservation.

WASHINGTON, September 1.—Major General Terry has informed the war department of the receipt of the following telegram from Major Randlett, dated Fort Duchesne, August 29: "Dawson with his troop, Indian Agent Byrnes and head men of the Utes started yesterday to meet General Crook and Governor Adams at Meeker. The Utes are all on the reservation. There are no fears of any leaving it. This can be assured the people of Colorado."

An Appeal Denied.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., September 1.—A telegram received from Flagstaff states that Sheriff Mulvernon, who left here recently with his posse to arrest parties implicated in the fight in the Tewksbury feud, was killed by the Graham faction. Owing to the fact that Tonto Basin is an isolated district, telegraph communication cannot be had and all orders must first be sent to Holbrook, seventy miles distant by courier. Four deaths had already occurred growing out of the feud. Mulvernon was widely known throughout the southwest.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., September 1.—A special to the Democrat from Flagstaff, Arizona, reports that Sheriff Mulvernon and [illegible] had been killed in attempting to arrest members of the warring Tewksbury and Graham factions at Pleasant Valley in this county are without foundation. A feud of long standing between Tewksbury and Graham resulted two weeks ago in an encounter at Pleasant Valley, in which [illegible] killed. Several engagements have occurred since in which eleven men have been killed. The factions are cattle and sheep men and the fight is the outgrowth of conflicting interests of the two branches of stock [illegible] growing on the range.

Last week Sheriff Mulvernon, [illegible] arrested [illegible] Prescott for the murder of Graham with the intention of [illegible] all the Grahams. A [illegible] Graham [illegible] organized [illegible] Mulvernon's [illegible] Prescott.
